We are here to help create a bespoke and fitting day of remembrance - however individual your requests are.

A funeral should reflect a person's character, using your ideas, their own requests and incorporating their particular beliefs, passions and hobbies.

The following details demonstrate the most necessary and regular fees incurred in providing a funeral, but there are more we offer and they differ for each family we care for. Please do ask us for more details.

It is our practice to request payment of the disbursements prior to the funeral taking place. The request for payment of our professional fees is sent to you following the funeral taking place and full settlement of the account is requested within 28 days of the date of the invoice.

Direct Cremation Option

This service is the most basic and therefore the least expensive service we offer. The crematorium is chosen by us and there is no formal service. The date and time of the cremation is also chosen to suit us.

The families who choose this service usually do so if it was the request of the deceased person to cause minimum fuss, if they are planning a memorial service/ceremony at later date, or if financially it is better suited to the funds they have available.

Our service includes – the necessary administration for the cremation, local (15 mile radius) removal of the deceased within office hours, care of the body until the day of the funeral, a simple coffin, vehicle and bearers to transport the coffin directly to the crematorium and if requested, the safe return of the ashes.

Our price for this service is £1640, in addition to this is a fee to the crematorium, for example Woodvale, of £457 and the Medical certificates (if applicable) which are £164. This would bring the total to £2261 and we would kindly request full payment before the date of the funeral.

Please feel able to discuss this option and we'll do our best to answer any questions you may have.

Please remember that we are here to offer advice, information and support in any way we can, regardless of being chosen to conduct the funeral.
